

From A Distant Shadow

B. G. W.

Butch G. Wipf

From a dis - tant shad - ow, from a dark - ened sky, from a call of sad - ness,
From a path that's lone - ly, from a heart in pain, from a tear that's fall - ing,
From a voice un - spo - ken, from a peace - ful dove, from a note of glad - ness, Ooo...

4
from a mourn - ful cry, — from a sea of car - ing, from a hope - ful ray, from a plead - ing strain, — from a hand that's bleed - ing, from a sad - dened brow, from a God of love, — from a life e - ter - nal, from a truth - ful Guest,

7 Refrain

hear the gen - tle Shep - herd, call - ing you to - day. p Come, O come, dear pil - grim, hear the gen - tle Shep - herd, come and hear Him now! Come, — dear pil - grim hear the gen - tle Shep - herd, come to Me and rest! ff

p

10
O come Home! Come, O come and nev - er more do roam. I will nev - er ev - er come — Home! Come, — and nev - er more do roam. I — will n'er for 14 all ff Come— and join the for - sake thee. Lay, O lay thy heav - y load on Me! sake thee. Lay— thy load up - on— Me! Come, O come and join the 18 blest Fold. Let— Me take con - trol!

bless - ed Fold. Let, O let Me come and take con - trol!

Aug. 2002

© Copyright 2002 by Decker Hutterian Colony.
 All Rights Reserved.